Mrs. Blanche Taylor Grant

Dedication

"Lose no time; be always employed in something useful; cut off all unnecessary action." The words of Benjamin Franklin are particularly applicable and precise when they apply to the school activities of Mrs. Blanche Taylor Grant. She is always punctual, exacting, and very meticulous. She hurriedly enters the classroom to prepare for the day's work. Every geometrical concept, every proof, every theorem takes on a new and deeper meaning as she relates them to her students. Her presence is always felt because she has such a sincere sense of dedication to the students of James B. Dudley Senior High School.

Mrs. Blanche Taylor Grant, the student body salutes you, a dedicated teacher.

Involvement of Today's Youth

The age of involvement has surrounded us. We are constantly being bombarded from all sides by news of major crises. We are witnessing the unveiling of our forefathers' history, too long suppressed, and the present upsurging of our own prominence on the national and international scene. Student revolts, political revolution, and social unrest have engulfed us. Spectacular accomplishments in the fields of sports, medicine and space exploration are now occurring right before our eyes. As we witness these and other events, we begin to develop a concern for, cultivate an awareness of, and become a part of the world around us. Thus, we began and continue to render total participation to school, community and social activities.

Two philosophies, that of the school and that of the guidance services of Greensboro City Schools, dictate the guidance program at James B. Dudley High School. The program is based upon the premise that each pupil is unique. His abilities, his capacity for growth and his worth as an individual is accepted. Guidance services are an integral part of the total educational program and are designed to help all pupils make adequate adjustments. These services assist the pupil in gaining self-understanding as a basis for solving his problems and for developing a plan for himself, which is consistent with his abilities, interests and aptitudes. Encompassing as they do the total child, these services must always be a part of the evolving and developing educational program. Guidance, all aspects of it, is a continuous process; and the responsibility for guidance services is shared by all who come in contact with the student from the time he enters until the time he leaves the school system.

The program of guidance services aids in the optimal development of each pupil so that he may become a mature, happy, efficient and responsible person. It contributes to his development by helping to place him in the best possible school environment and helping him to develop self-understanding and self-acceptance. Guidance, then, is concerned first with identification of student potential and, second, with the development of a program which will provide opportunities for realization of that potential.

Consequently, the concept of guidance services is dedicated to working cooperatively within the total educational program and with other resource agencies so that each pupil may gain maximum benefit from the educational program offered at Greensboro Dudley Senior High School.

The Library Reaches Out

The Library reaches out in many ways--for thinkers who seek fuel to fire their thinking, for hungry brains and idle ones that need satisfaction from the thoughts of others, for new ways to do old things. The depth and height and width of these three dimensions make a thing real. Our library collections represent many points of view, treat many subjects, and suit many tastes.

What constitutes good library service?--it is not books alone. It is a complex combination of people and ideas. First, always, are the people: readers who find a new life in books; scholars who seek wisdom in the ideas of others and more accessible to those who need them. The ideas--the other element in this compound--are not embodied only in type on paper but are found on films and tape and discs as well. It is the reach for what is beyond our placid daily routine, our placid unchallenged thinking, that lifts us to new and greater dimensions of life and thought.

Spurred by Jusserand's Admonition that 'the future is not in the hands of fate, but in ours; we must plan for times ahead. Our successors will expect this of us as we expected it from our predecessors. And our plans should be based on the faith that together the books, the hardware, the librarian, and the reader will light up the future, as they have illuminated the past.

Through modern advances in science and technology, the library has not limited its collection and service to books alone. Such audio-visual media as pictures (clipped from newspapers and magazines), reproductions of art masterpieces, slides, filmstrips, motion picture films, charts, graphs, maps, phonograph records, tape recordings, and transparencies are some of the vivid and concrete sharing of people's ideas of today.

These media are useful to every phase of the school's curriculum as well as the extra-curricular activities. They provide knowledge for recreational and cultural purposes.

Stimulated by the intensive work done last year to satisfy the evaluation criteria, the English Department is expanding and improving in several directions. During the summer the three teachers working with NEA's Composition Project at Dudley, were part of an institute in advanced composition at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Aspects of composition tackled in the institute were logic, semantics, and transformational grammar. Among the plus values from the summer's experience are a broadening of teacher competency in eliciting more participation in class discussions (a MUST, preceding each writing assignment) by raising stimulating questions and serving more as a consultant--when called upon--rather than dominating the discussion. Again, aspects of writing are now tackled as such, rather than attempting the fused approach generally used.

The new school year has seen the launching of an Honors English Program on all grade levels. These classes involve greater depth and enrichment than are possible in the regular English classes. Though, at present, there is but one section at each level, the program, hopefully, will grow and eventually become the feeder to Advanced Placement English, which is a college-level course for students with exceptional ability.

Cooperative work between teachers of American literature and of United States History (one teacher in each area) is being done currently and informally. Perhaps bona fide team teaching and a course in the Humanities are in the making. Hopefully, this is so. At any rate, this is a new emphasis in this Department.

Finally, several members of the Department are studying innovative techniques being presented as in-service training by North Carolina's LINC. The study is under the caption "Project Change" and is being taught by one of North Carolina's talented young writers, Miss Sylvia Wilkinson. The techniques being projected are of particular worth in achieving a versatility of approach to literature.

Foreign Languages

In order to insure better transition from the high school to the college level of language study, the teachers of the Foreign Language Department felt that their first step should be to establish good communication with as many college professors as possible. This led to the description of the general strengths and weaknesses of language students who enter college and the outlining of the specific difference of instruction on the college level. Thus, a foundation was laid for better coordination between the high school and college levels of language study.

Science

Members of the James B. Dudley Science department believe that science, properly taught, will develop a way of thinking and acting which will lead to exploration, investigation and creativity. Therefore, we strive to help pupils understand the social function of science and to think and act in relation to the implications of science and technology for society.

Basic courses are offered in biology, chemistry and physics, and advanced courses in biology and chemistry.

The science building is a common exit as students dash for home at day's end.

The Business Education Department at Dudley affords ALL of the students an opportunity to gain basic knowledges, skills, attitudes, understandings, and appreciations necessary for successful living. In addition, vocational business education is designed to prepare the students for initial employment in various business establishments.

The preparatory business courses offered include: Bookkeeping I, Business Information, Typewriting I, Business Law, Business Economics, Business Mathematics, and Shorthand I. Vocational business courses are: Clerical Office Practice, Cooperative Office Occupations, and Typewriting II. The Cooperative Office Occupations course is the latest addition to the department, and is based on the principle that one learns best to perform by actual contact with the job under competent supervision. The course provides the opportunity to earn while learning, helps to build good citizenship, and develops a sense of personal worth through the acceptance of job responsibilities.

Vocational Education

Vocational Education at Dudley is a balanced program of studies and work experiences that have the common objective of producing competent workers for our industrial society. Its purpose is to develop the skills, abilities, understandings, attitudes, work habits, knowledge and information needed for students who desire to enter employment.

The objectives are:

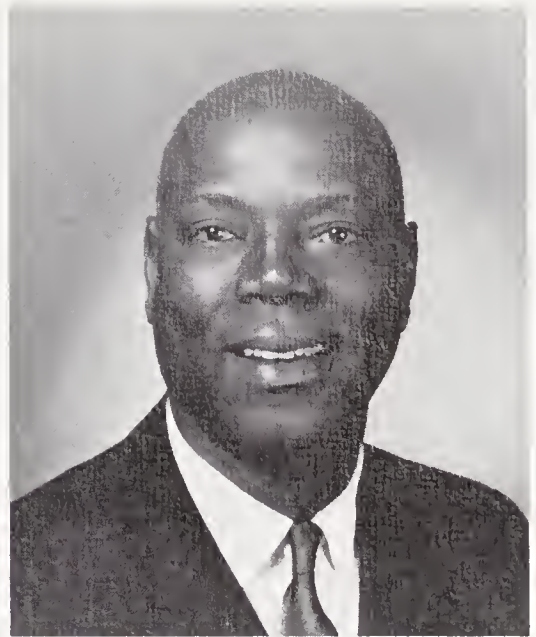

1. To enable the student to become familiar with the language of the trade and the world of work.
2. To develop in each student a measure of skills and knowledge in the use of common tools, machines, materials, products and processes of industry.
3. To more effectively meet the needs of industry by providing a source of qualified employees in skilled areas.
4. To aid in the development of an American citizen who is competent economically, socially, emotionally and physically.

Driver Education

Herman Holley
B.S. A & T State University

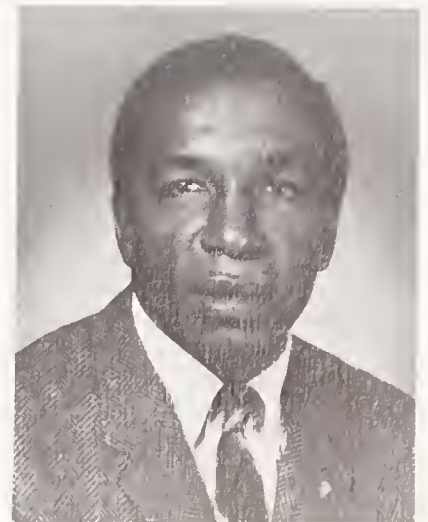

Highway traffic is the lifeblood of the United States transportation system. When traffic fails to flow smoothly and efficiently, destruction, disfigurement, and death result which affect the lives of every American. The driver is the key to the solution of our traffic problems. Unfortunately, drivers are not as good as they should be. This is especially true of young drivers. Lack of training is the reason many motor vehicle operators do not drive efficiently and safely. Driver Education, then, is essential for making beginners good drivers and experienced drivers more competent. Efficient driving performances will bring about broad social advances and many personal benefits to each of us. It is obvious, therefore, that we all should become more actively concerned with traffic safety.

The Air Force Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps began its second year of operation at Dudley.

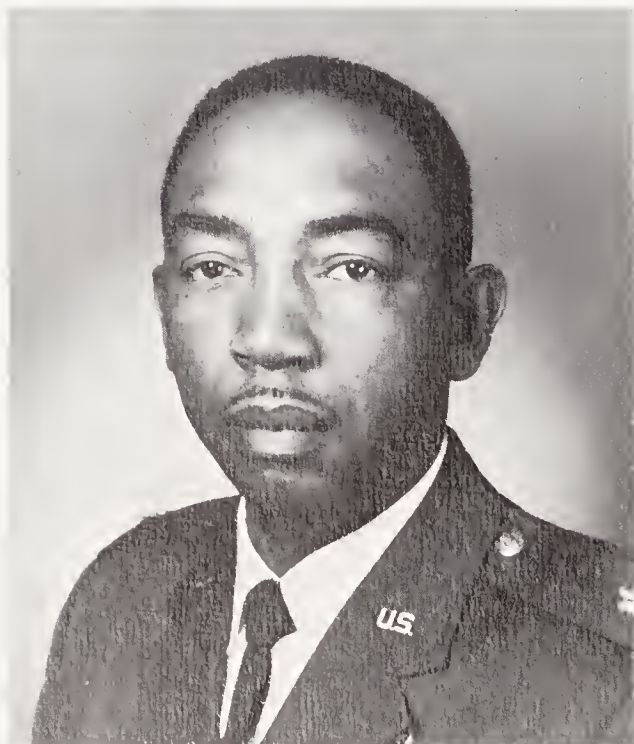

Proudly sporting new look ascots of orange, yellow and red, the corps consists of 122 boys in the sophomore, junior and senior classes.

The second year curriculum is tailored to the boy whose ambition includes the desire to engage in the highly technical skills of aviation. Theory of Aircraft Flight, Propulsion Systems of Aircraft, Air Navigation and military Aerospace are a few of the wild blue yonder subjects offered. Increased extra curricular activities are contemplated.

When the Dudley campus resounds with "Off We Go into the Wild Blue Yonder", don't be surprised to find a Dudley Cadet preparing to board Apollo 125!

Every young man and woman of today must take a driver education course. Mr. Holley is about to leave the campus for a driving lesson with four pupils.

"Who sent for the cops?" "He is parked too close to the building, where is he? I want to give him a ticket." This is my chance for revenge!! "I wonder who turned in the bomb scare??"-- These thoughts are racing through Crawford's mind now at a mile-a-minute.

A variety of music courses are offered at Dudley so that students may study, develop music skills collectively and individually, and participate in music activities commensurate with their interests, talents, and abilities. There are three levels of singing, two of band, two of guitar, two of General Music, and one of orchestra. Music theory is taught in context with all music courses and studio, and individualized instruction is offered daily.

Look Alikes—Two Sets of Twins

It is no wonder that teachers have such a difficult time learning their pupils. Here are two pairs of typical examples: RICHARD and ROBERT, TERCOLIA and TERVOLIA. Over half of the present student body still has trouble distinguishing between the two young men here who are identical twins. You take a look now. Can you tell the difference?

Oops and Ahs and "Don'ts"

1. Mr. Boyers caught behind the cage describing a situation.
2. "What do you want in here?" Mrs. Holley wants to know of the photo man.
3. Miss Dye thought the photographer was fixing to take the picture before she got the dance group ready . . . He did.
4. Now, do you still wonder what happens when the professor steps out of the room for a smoke, cup of coffee, or even something more urgent?

ORGANIZATIONS

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America

"UPON MY HONOR, I Pledge:

1. To prepare myself by diligent study and ardent practice to become a worker whose services will be recognized as honorable by my employer and fellow workers,
2. To base my expectations of reward upon the solid foundation of service,
3. To honor and respect my vocation in such a way as to bring repute to myself,
4. And further, to spare no effort in upholding the ideals of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America."

The club meets periodically to provide opportunities for the members to participate in educational, social recreational, and vocational activities. These activities aid in stimulating proper attitudes and developing those behavior patterns vital to a good citizen.

Future Homemakers of America

Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of girls and boys studying homemaking in high schools in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands.

The national organization is composed of chartered state associations which are made up of local chapters.

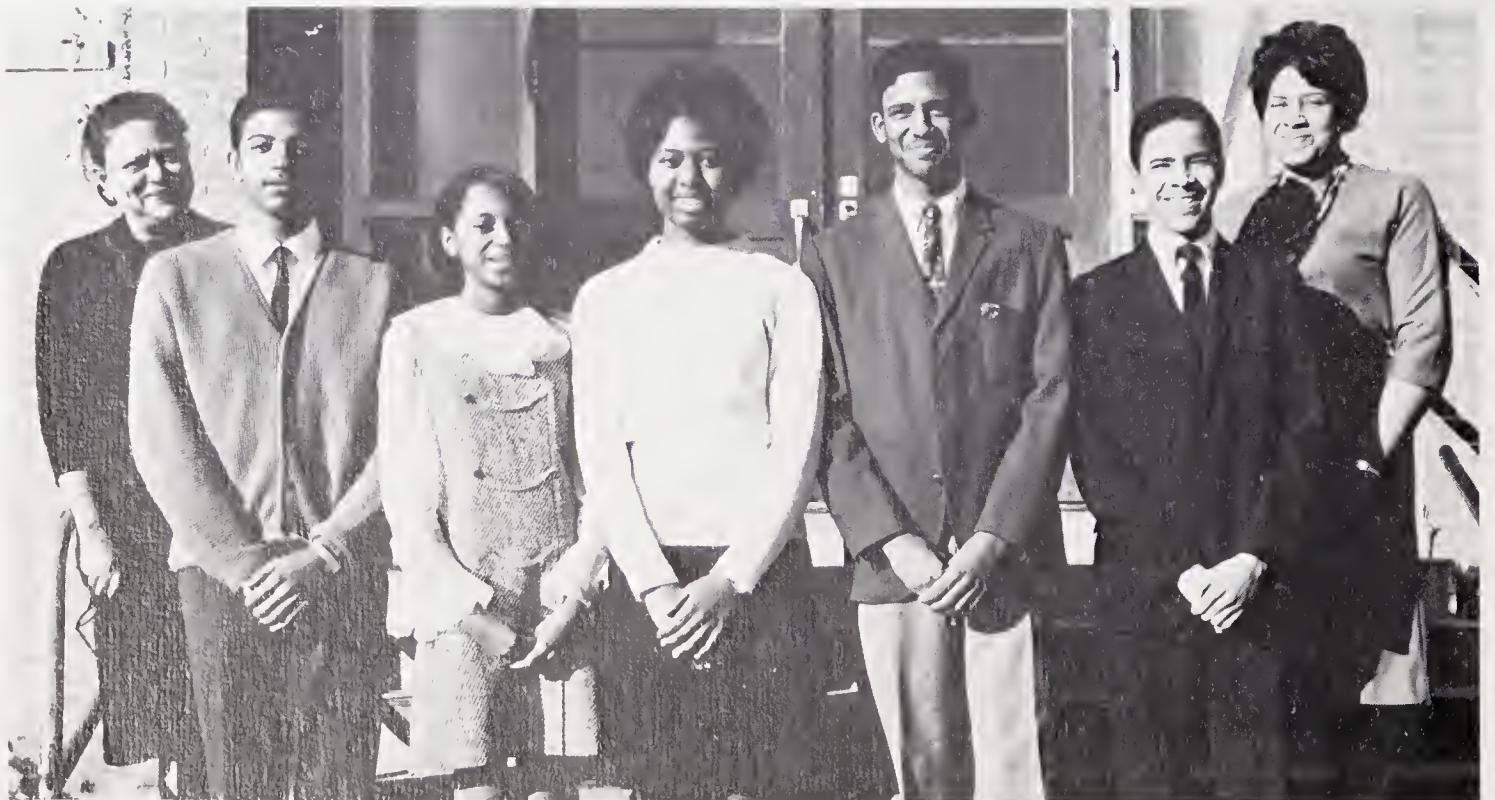

The over-all goal of the organization is to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and in the future.

Any student who is enrolled or has been previously enrolled in a home economics class at a junior or senior high school is eligible for membership in any affiliated chapter.

The School Spirit Committee

Who are the students that keep alive strains of victory, which spur the "Mighty Panthers" on? The members of the School Spirit Committee, of course. A subcommittee of the Youth Recreation Council, the S.S.C. is one of the newest and "most together" organizations to make the scene at Dudley High School this year. Its members are students who have an active interest and a sense of loyalty for their school in all its endeavors, especially in the field of athletics. The main objective of the S.S.C. is to stimulate the development of proper school spirit among Dudleyites. Members of the club make posters which are distributed throughout the school before the games in an effort to increase moral support for our teams and thus encourage Dudleyites to attend the games.

Dudley Marshals and Officers

The Dudley Marshals might well adopt President Nixon's slogan, "Forward, together", for we are together in grooming, together in attire, together in punctuality, and together in courtesy. With all of these assets we strive to make everyone feel at home when he comes to Dudley for the enjoyment of our cultural programs.

We have but one regret these days: It is that we are not kept busy enough. Since we are so good at our job, we appeal to the Dudley family to allow us to use our expertise by having more gatherings requiring our service.

The Dudley Thespians

The Thespians have an undying love and devotion to the theatre. Their work in drama helps them grow in poise, self-confidence, and in self-realization.

The Thespians work hard, spend long hours in rehearsal, and try to give their best in performances for the student body and the community. They contribute much to the life of the school, and in doing so, find their work most rewarding and stimulating.

The club's goal is to stimulate potential artists and to serve others through the members' talents in that field.

Cooperative Office Training

Co-operative Office Occupations

Co-operative Office Occupations is a new vocational course offered to Dudley this year. The Coordinator of the program is Mrs. Jamesena D. Watkins.

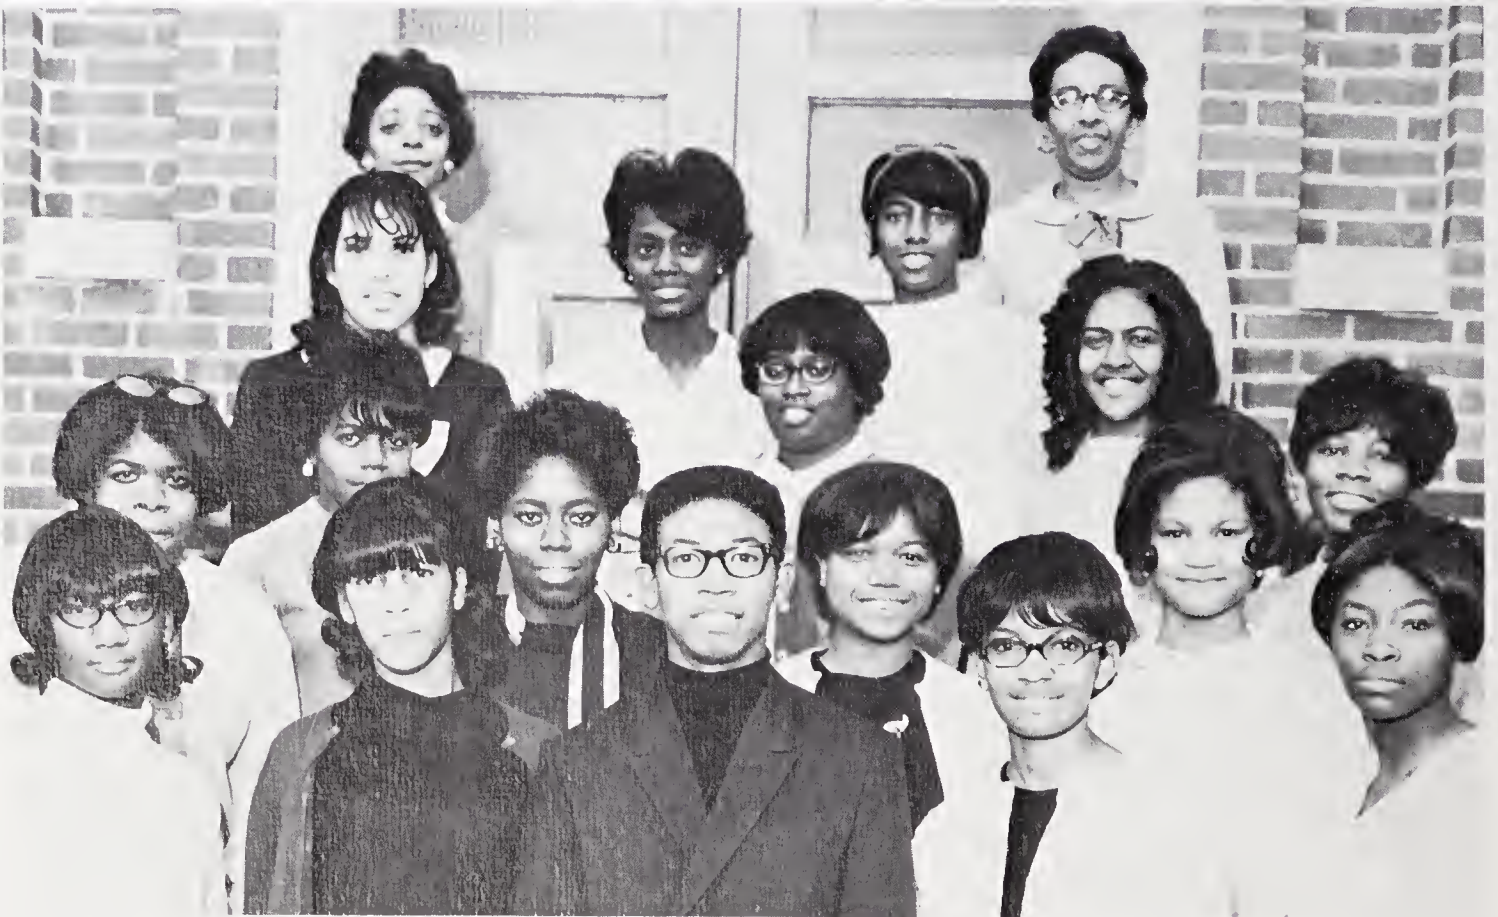

The purpose of COO is to give those students interested in office occupations an opportunity and the experience of working in offices.

Employers co-operate with the school and the students in providing supervised training in preparation for secretarial and general office careers. The students are paid minimum salaries while they are learning.

The PREREQUISITES for enrolling in COO are:

1. The students must be 16 years of age or over.
2. The students should have at least one year of typing.
3. The students should possess a career interest in the office occupations field with willingness and aptitude for studying the related skills.

The Mixed Chorus

Mixed Chorus Caught in Action

The Dudley Choral Society is an outstanding course activity in the school. Each year it attracts over one hundred students whose basic interest is singing for enjoyment, and learning music for a definite purpose.

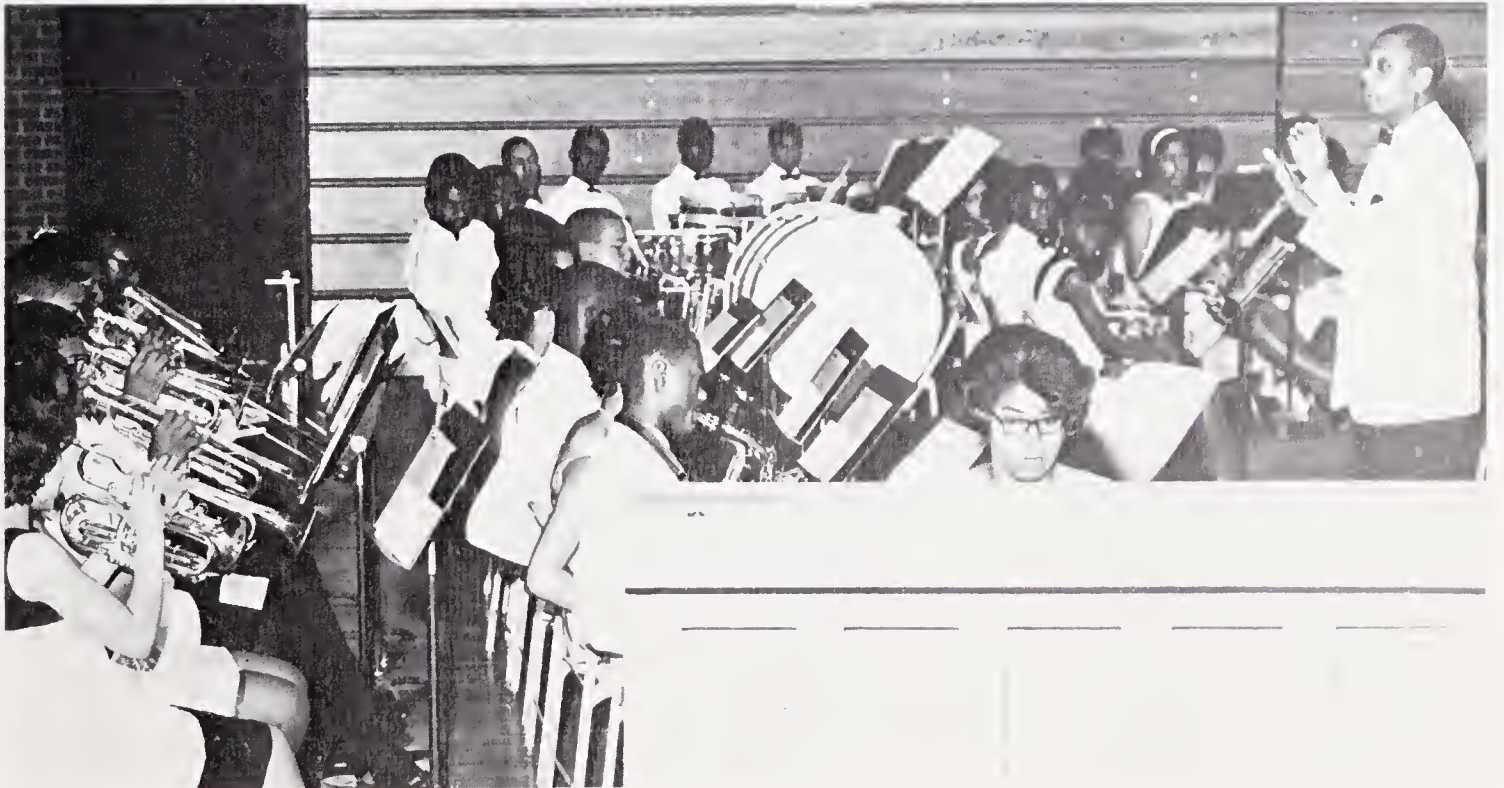

The society consists of Mixed Choruses, Boys' Chorus, and Girls' Chorus. These performing groups are constantly busy with building repertoire and working out stage programs. Among the varied performances are: The Thanksgiving Program, The Christmas Program, The Concert, The City-Wide Choral Festival, and some solo and small ensemble work.

Many of Dudley's Choral Society students have pursued music as a profession and have found employment in various schools, colleges and universities as well as in the vocal jazz profession.

We Provide the Pep at Games

The Pantherettes is the first of its kind at Dudley. Their performances techniques are unusual and completely original. The group this year is captained by Loretta Haith with Claudette Bass and Deborah Graves serving as co-captains. The Pantherette repertoire includes brilliant military numbers, Contemporary dance production numbers, precision dance routines and novelty production numbers.

The purpose of Pantherettes is to provide wholesome activity and companionship for the members, to perform precision marching and dancing routines at football games, and to set high standards of character and behavior for the students at Dudley. The Pantherettes are famous for the perfection and group precision which they strive to attain for every performance. (not shown): Earl Caldwell, Bosaye Jeffries, James Johnson, Raymond Pettiford, Myron Tynes, Roger Clinard. These cadets are all juniors (11 graders) except Cadet Captain Norman Wrenn, a senior assigned from A Flight. Cadet Captain Wrenn, right front, is flight commander.

Cadets must have two series of uniforms each year. Below Phyllis makes certain that each cadet shirt is arranged according to size and length. These "Summer" Khaki shirts have been put aside for the winter. Phyllis, like several others who do volunteer work in AFJROTC, works with CMSgt. Walter Bell, retired. Her duties include typing, bookkeeping and sorting.

Other girls who work in this department are Gwendolyn Warren, Carolyn Curtis, Deloris Thompson, and Evelyn Williams.

Top Brass on Campus

AFJROTC and the cadets on the campus were honored to have two distinguished servicemen visit them this year. Supposedly on a routine inspection tour the visitors gave high praise to Colonel Johnson and Sergeant Bell for the progress made with the AFJROTC unit stationed here at "Good ol Dudley High". Pictured above are Col. Johnson, principal Franklin J. Brown, Colonel Rivers, Miss AFJROTC Ressie Guy, Master Sergeant Gamble, and Cadet Lt. Col. Thomas Murphy. Colonel Rivers and Sergeant Gamble are stationed at AFROTC headquarters, Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, Alabama.

Yearbook Photographers

Clifton Johnson

Phillip McAlphin

No Yearbook can be complete without the services of photographers. But this year the Panther has more than just photographers, they were professionals, at least they seemed professional. The quality of their work can be seen on every page. Our gratitude to them. Never have we had such efficient men who got pleasure from working with the staff of The Dudley Panther. Not only did they take the pictures, but they developed, printed and enlarged every picture on their own time and in the school darkroom.

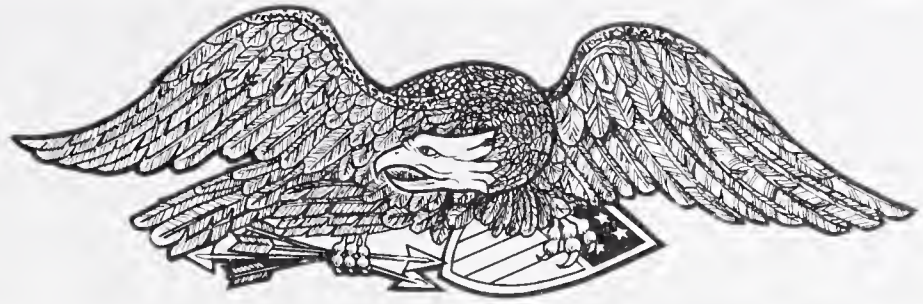

Of course, they began as rank amateurs. Colonel Andrew Johnson's guiding hand and constant probing and his superb equipment contributed heavily toward their success.

Miss Homecoming Queen

Misses Norma Withrow, Cora Martin, Mamie Perkins, Debra McCray and Gwendolyn Carter.

These beauties were the center of attraction at this year's homecoming contest. They posed here on the campus before moving on to the stadium for the evening's football contest between the Mighty Panthers and the Atkins Camels of Winston Salem, N.C. We lost the contest but we gained in loyalty and sportsmanship.

Miss AFJROTC 1969

Miss R. Reesie Guy

If anyone doubts the ability of young cadets to see and recognize beauty when they see it, need only to look at their choice for Miss AFJROTC 1969 style. Pictured here is Miss Roy Ressie Guy, senior, a beauty indeed.

School life is just wonderful, she thinks. Her ambition is to be of some worthy service to her fellow man.

"Thank you so much, you wonderful cadets, for this splendid honor. I cannot pay you money for this honor, but I can promise you I will hold fast to your traditions and honors forever."

Congratulations are in order for Miss Barbara Summers, Dudley's 1969 edition of Miss Patron. She broke all previous records of contestants by reporting almost $100 to prove her Loyalty and Love for Greensboro Dudley Senior High School.

Pity we have no other females with such vibrant aspirations and undying love for a school that will remain in their memories for an eternity. . . ." Foundations built, our lives will forge ahead . . . On love and kindness have our young souls fed. Strength of our life . . . "

Mr. Patron 1969

Norman Wrenn

*First Place Winner
in 1969 with $115*

One cannot help but admire this young man--Norman Wrenn. For the second time in as many years, he has come up with top honors among young men for the coveted title of Mr. Patron of 1969. Thank you, Norman. Your contribution of $115 is a tremendous task as well as a gigantic contribution to the Yearbook. Would you believe that most of his soliciting was done by himself? You see, his aunt--who is pictured on the next page--also made her contribution to the cause. It is with pleasure that we continue the words of our alma mater for this dedicated man--"Be thou our light in all the years to come . . . Our Dudley High, we'll ever praise and love thee. Success ahead . . ."

Mrs. Patron 1969

Mrs. Catherine Surgeon

Mrs. Surgeon, you have been chosen as Mrs. Patron of 1969 because you found time among your many many chores to solicit patrons for Our Dudley High. In doing so you demonstrated your love for a wonderful school. That $96 you collected for us was exceeded only by two other persons in the whole school. One of those who beat you was your own kin. So you have reason to be doubly proud of your contribution. We will always love and cherish you whenever and wherever you go. Pity that there are not thousands like you.

As our alma mater says: "Deep thoughts of love, we'll always have for you . . . we'll ever praise and love thee . . ."

Frances McNair

Frances competed in the city-wide campaign for Greensboro's Junior Miss Pageant and came off with the position of first runner up. Congratulations, Frances, on this high honor.

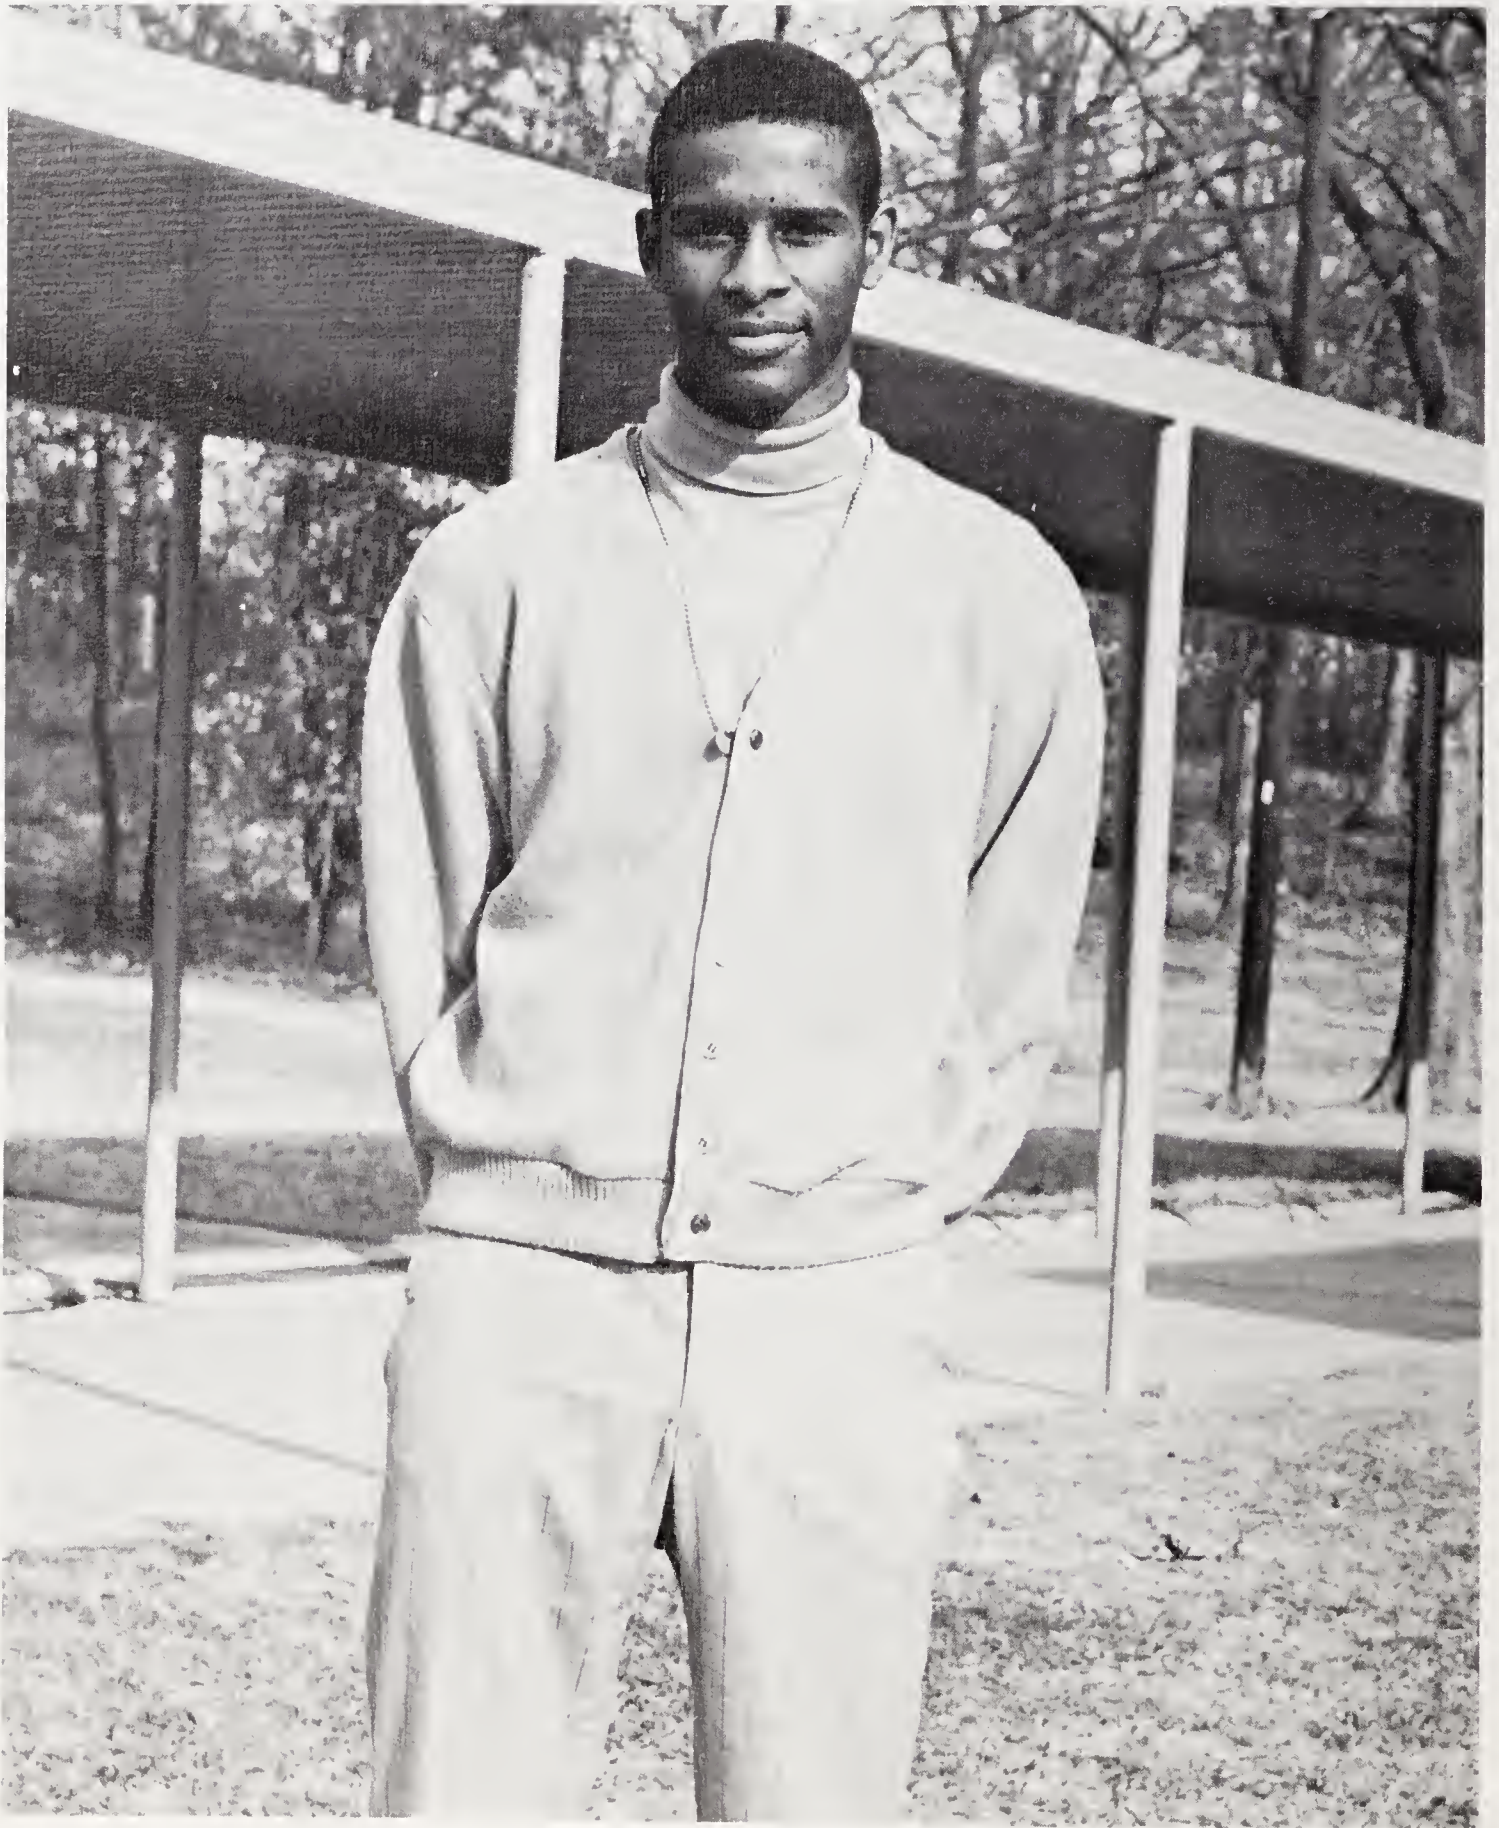

Brice Smith, 1968 graduate, receives the coveted 1968 Citizenship award from Franklin J. Brown, principal. One such person is awarded this honor annually. They are chosen by the students of the school and recognized in April or May each year.

Athletics

W. J. Furcron—Athletic Director

The athletic staff extends thanks and appreciation to the many patrons of our athletic games. Thanks for your interest and help in supporting the Dudley High School Athletic Program. The extent to which we are able to reach the desired goals which we have set up for the Dudley interscholastic program depends largely upon the interest, attention, and contributions shown and made by the community. Through our athletic program we are trying to provide a wholesome environment for our youth whereby they might gain valuable experiences that will make life more meaningful. We hope that the Dudley athlete develops dependability, cooperation, perseverance, endurance, courage, a healthy body, emotional stability, sportsmanship, and an appreciation for academic excellency.

Dudley High School's 1968-69 football team faced a hard schedule with many inexperienced players at important positions. Edwin "Maniac" Corbett was the only returning letterman. The team played spirited ball but was hurt by more experienced clubs.

They posted a 1 and 8 record. Such juniors and sophomores as James Johnson, Rody McCoy, William Phifer, Ray Pettiford, Edwin Corbett, and Joe and John Davis will form the nucleus for next year's team.

Calvin Miller and John "Duck" Guy were senior performers honored during the season. Guy won the Golden Helmet award for his outstanding play at offensive end, place-kicking, and defensive halfback. Calvin Miller was named to the All-City team at guard position. He was named defensive captain.

Although the Panthers were unable to retain the championship of the Central 4-A, they seem to be loaded for next year's gridiron season.

Basketball

Dudley's basketball has so far posted a 2--9 record this year as they enter a rebuilding stage. Seniors dominated last year's team so that this is the first year of actual competition for such standouts as Kenny Tapp and Lawrence Williams.

Kenny Tapp has had the most productive season as he clipped the nets for 23 points against Parkland. Lawrence Williams had a high of 20 against Hillside. Williams is also the leading rebounder.

Coaches: Alton Swan, William H. Whites.

Baseball

As the Panther Baseball team changed conferences the going got a little rough for the team. This Year's edition of heavy batters and sticky gloves seems to be impressive.

Back to continue their attacks on the diamonds are Claude Boone, last year's Attorney H. Frye MVP award winner, Garry Russell (pitcher 4 won 3 lost), Reginald Smith (outfielder), Reginald Booker (shortstop) Abner Donnell (2nd baseman) and Garcia Howard (pitcher).

The Dudley Wrestling Team is showing great improvement over last year's team. We have a potential sectional champ in Ricky Smith the team captain. With the help of this year's Sophomores and Juniors our record will improve next year.

Ricky Smith Dudley's main hope in the regional's and possibly the State. Posting a record so far of 8 wins and 11 losses.

Ray Crosby is a Junior contender. He posted a record of 4 wins and 3 losses. He's a possible letterman.

Track—

100 Yard Dash

880 Relay Team

The Track Team, which will definitely show the loss of Speedy Jimmy Smith, seems to be making a strong effort to go all the way this year. Returning are Lawrence Williams in the low hurdles and a member of the 880 relay team. Along with Williams will be Ray Crosby and Alton Rogers in the 440 quarter mile which will add to the strength of the team. In addition with these speedsters will be Connie Herbin and Larry Patterson in the 100-200 yard dashes.

Golf Team

The Dudley Golf Team under the direction of J. A. McKee and H. W. Holley performed quite competitively for their third year of Central Four-A conference. We had one player to go to the state (even though he was unplaced) to return this year. Again this year the lack of Golf enthusiasm seems to be the problem.

Tennis Team

The Tennis Team now in their 2nd year of competition seems to be coming along with a lot of improvement. This year Waldo Martin and Kim Poe will be fighting for the number one position. The only problem with this years team is the lack of experience.

You don't have to be a basketball player to get into college anymore.

Time was when the Negro either had to grow 6'8" tall or develop shoulders big enough to tear a hole in somebody's football line if he wanted to go to college.

Things are different now. About all it takes for a black to get into the college of his choice is brains and money.

If your kid has the brains we can help you plan for the money. North Carolina Mutual has a policy that helps you make certain there will be enough money for your child's college education. And give your family protection, too.

We're a Negro operated company that's been helping blacks plan for tomorrow since 1898. It's made us one of the strongest companies in the insurance industry today. Call us about your child's college education.

"I'm staying right here!!" "Yeah!" "Not me!".

"She did it".

Intramural's at lunchtime.

Same to you, sir!

The way I see it, we need to call a strike.
